

NEWSLETTER

News

The international students of Eszterházy Károly Catholic University learn about the history of Hungarians

The International Student and Scholar Services Office of the International Strategy and Program Development Department, in collaboration with the Centre for Foreign Language Training and Services, organised a trip to Ópusztaszer and Kecskemét for international students on 31 May.

MORE

University delegation strengthens ties with the United States

The Rector of Eszterházy Károly Catholic University, Dr. Ilona Pajtók-Tari PhD, and the Vice Rector for Education, Dr. Hajnalka Csáfor PhD, represented the university at the Hungarian Summit, a series of events held in Florida with the objective of fostering better relations between the United States of America and Hungary in the economic, educational, social, and cultural spheres.

MORE

Successful Rectors' meeting at the opening of the Summer University in Spain

Dr. Ilona Pajtók-Tari, Ph.D., Rector of Eszterházy Károly Catholic University and Casimiro Mantell Serrano, Rector of the University of Cadiz jointly opened the VitEnoClimat Erasmus+ Summer University of Viticulture and Wine in Spain.

MORE

Successful negotiations in China and Indonesia

A delegation from Eszterházy Károly Catholic University has recently visited the Augsburg Technical University of Applied Sciences. The meeting was very fruitful as the parties signed a cooperation agreement for creating opportunities for joint work, such as the launch of double degree programmes.

MORE

Global Cooking Night is Back!

Want to taste the flavours of the world in one evening? - this was the motto of the Global Cooking Night, organized again after a break due to Covid, by the international students and the International Student Services Office at the University Events Centre on 16 April 2024.

MORE

International students visit Veszprém

Between 9th and 10th April the representatives of the Stipendium Hungaricum Mentor Network organised a trip to Veszprém.

MORE

Wine Culture and Wine Gastronomy Eger Summer University between 8 and 14 July 2024

The Centre for Foreign Language Training and Services is organising an English-language thematic summer university entitled Wine Culture and Wine Gastronomy from 8 to 14 July 2024, which is open not only to wine professionals, but also to wine lovers and English language learners.

MORE

The management of the institution visits Spain

Dr. Ilona Pajtók-Tari, Ph.D., Rector and Dr. Zoltán Kálmán Váczy, Ph.D., Vice-Rector, visited the University of La Rioja in Spain. The delegation from Eger had a meeting with the Rector Dr. Juan Carlos Ayala Calvo in connection with a joint project and had the opportunity to learn about how the Spanish institution works.

MORE

The Ambassador of the United Arab Emirates visited our University

His Excellency Saud Hamad Al-Shamsi, Ambassador of the United Arab Emirates to Hungary, visited Eszterházy Károly Catholic University. During the meeting, the diplomat presented the country, spoke about the opportunities in the United Arab Emirates and explored cooperation links with the management of the institution.

MORE

The Ambassador of Norway visited our University

Trine Skymoen, Ambassador of Norway, visited Eszterházy Károly Catholic University. During the day, she had the opportunity to see the Archdiocesan Library, the Chapel in the Lyceum and the Observatory and Science Experience Centre.

MORE

Orientation day for international students

Trine Skymoen, Ambassador of Norway, visited Eszterházy Károly Catholic University. During the day, she had the opportunity to see the Archdiocesan Library, the Chapel in the Lyceum and the Observatory and Science Experience Centre.

MORE

Hungarian Language Course for South Korean Students

Organised by the Centre for Foreign Language Training and Services, Hungarian major students from Hankuk University, Seoul participated in an intensive language training at our university for the third time between 8 January and 23 January 2024.

MORE

