

NEWSLETTER

News

Stipendium Hungaricum Scholarship Call for Application

The scholarship programme offers both full degree and partial study opportunities in the three-cycle degree structure (bachelor's, master's and doctoral programmes)

MORE

20. Hungarian Diaspora Scholarship Call for Application

The Scholarship Programme aims to strengthen the ties between Hungarian diaspora communities and Hungary by supporting those who wish to rediscover and reconnect to their Hungarian heritage and want to become professionals on a field that can contribute to the prosperity of their diaspora community as well.

MORE

Building relations with Argetina

Ricardo Andrés Vignolo, Deputy Head of Mission, Comercial and Press Section of the Embassy of the Argentine Republic in Hungary, and Attila Tóbiás, Embassy staff member visited Eszterházy Károly Catholic University.

MORE

Cooperation with Henan Institute of Science and Technology

A delegation from Henan, the third most populous province in China, visited Esterházy Károly Catholic University. During the event, Dr. Ilona Pajtók-Tari, Ph.D., Rector, and Dr. Liu Quanyong, Vice President of Henan Institute of Science and Technology, signed a cooperation agreement that paves the way for joint research activities between the two institutions.

MORE

Stipendium Hungaricum Student Excellence Award ceremony and Welcome Event

New scholarship holders for the 2024/2025 academic year were greeted and the Stipendium Hungaricum excellence awards were presented at the official welcome ceremony of the Stipendium Hungaricum Scholarship Programme held on 16 October 2024 in Budapest.

MORE

Irish Ambassador visits the university

Ragnar Almqvist, Ambassador of Ireland to Hungary and Dr Marianna Szegedi Joo , Cultural Attaché, visited Eszterházy Károly Catholic University.

MORE

Hungarian cuisine was at the centre of the International Student and Scholar Services Office's opening event of the semester

The International Student Services Office of Eszterházy Károly Catholic University welcomed foreign students and their mentors to the „Hungarian Cooking Day” event, which was attended by nearly 40 young people who came to learn about the rich flavours of Hungarian cuisine.

MORE

Chinese doctors' visit to Markhot Ferenc Hospital

Eszterházy Károly Catholic University offers general and medical language courses for Chinese doctors and health educators. As part of the training programme, they also visited the hospital in Eger.

MORE

Participation in the biggest European international higher education exhibition of the year

Two colleagues from the International Strategy and Program Development Department represented Eszterházy Károly Catholic University at the 34th EAIE Conference and Exhibition in Toulouse, France, from 17 to 20 September 2024.

MORE

Researchers of Eszterházy Károly Catholic University at the forefront of the world

The Stanford/Elsevier list, a joint ranking of the world's top scientists by Stanford University and Elsevier, has been published, including several colleagues from Eszterházy Károly Catholic University.

MORE

Orientation day for international students

On 9 September, the International Strategy and Program Development welcomed foreign students arriving for the autumn semester 2024/2025 with an information session, a visit to the institution and interactive programmes at the Lyceum building.

MORE

A delegation from the Chinese Ministry of Education visited our university

A three-member Chinese delegation led by Xiong Xing, Director of the Centre for International Services of the Ministry of Education of the People's Republic of China, visited our University on 24 August.

MORE

Professional development for professors from Hubei University

Nine medical professors and two IT experts from Hubei University in China have started their three-month English language and professional training at Eszterházy Károly Catholic University

MORE

Young athlete from El Salvador continues his studies in Eger

Ten athletes hailing from ten countries and representing four continents will continue their careers in Hungary within the frames of the Stipendium Hungaricum Sports Scholarship Programme in the 2024/25 academic year, World Aquatics, the international swimming federation, announced on its website. Among the successful applicants is José Campo Hernández, a swimmer from El Salvador, who will start his studies at Eszterházy Károly Catholic University in September 2024.

MORE

Summer camp for Chinese students

A group of Chinese university students is currently engaged in a summer programme at Eszterházy Károly Catholic University.

MORE

Multicultural learning - Summer University organised by the Centre for Foreign Language Training and Services

The Stanford/Elsevier list, a joint ranking of the world's top scientists by Stanford University and Elsevier, has been published, including several colleagues from Eszterházy Károly Catholic University.

MORE

International experts have analysed the limits of crime literature

The eleventh Captivating Criminality: Hybridisation and Generic Experiments in Crime Narratives conference was hosted by Eszterházy Károly Catholic University between 27-29 June 2024. The event, organised by the Department of English and American Studies, attracted nearly 60 participants from Australia, Japan, India, the United States and other countries.

MORE

CAD'24 - International Computer Aided Geometric Modelling Conference at the University

Eszterházy Károly Catholic University is hosting CAD '24, one of the most high level international conference series in the field of computer geometric modelling.

MORE

THE ranking

Eszterházy Károly Catholic University has been ranked among the best Hungarian universities in the Times Higher Education Impact Rankings: not only is it one of the best Hungarian universities, but it is also the second best Hungarian institution in the „No Poverty” category and the third best in the „Living on Land” category.

MORE

Fulbright and American visitors at our university

A nine-member American delegation and staff of the Hungarian-American Fulbright Commission visited Eszterházy Károly Catholic University on 12 June. The American professors came to Eger from universities in Kentucky, Tennessee and North Carolina to learn about the research and training opportunities at the institution and to establish partnerships for students interested in exchange and research programmes.

MORE

International Action for Animals

Last week, an enthusiastic group of EKC University international students joined the Animals Together Foundation’s team of volunteer walkers. The initiative aims to help the dogs at the shelter, while also providing mental health benefits for the students who spend time with animals. Students, who participated in the dog walk came from Ghana, Turkey, Indonesia and India, demonstrating the global diversity of our University’s student community.

MORE

