

BUDAPEST – GYÖNGYÖS

THE ULTIMATE SURVIVAL GUIDE

I just landed in Budapest! What now?

Getting to Gyöngyös is easier than you think, let us help you with it. Here is a step-by-step guide:

1. Take bus 200E. Buses leave right in front of the terminal; check the schedule here. You will need a single ticket for the ride, which costs 350 HUF (1.2€; and if you are at it, buy several- they come in handy) purchased before the ride, but if you buy it from the driver it will be 450 HUF (1.5€). <http://www.bkk.hu/en/timetables/> should provide you with all the sufficient info regarding Budapest's public transport.
2. Take Metro 3 (or as Budapesters refer to it, the blue metro). 200E will drop you right at the metro station (Kőbánya-Kispest).
3. Get off at Deák Ferenc tér, take Metro 2 (the red metro line) in the direction of Őrs vezér tere.
4. Get off at Puskás Ferenc Stadion. You will find yourself at a huge junction. To your right, you will see signs 'Volánbusz', so turn to the left and you will find the bus terminal after a 2 minute walk. Buses leave to Gyöngyös every 30-45 minutes, but check the following link for more accurate timetable. Do not worry about the various destinations (you might see Gyöngyös-Eger etc.), if the bus has Budapest – Gyöngyös – Eger as name, it means that it will go through Gyöngyös. Tickets cost ~1500HUF (~5€). It usually takes 1 hour 20 minutes to get to Gyöngyös.

Editor's note: Taxis are always a good alternative for short distances. A cab from the airport to the bus or railway stations would take you for ~4500HUF (~15€). Taxis in Gyöngyös are cheap and distances are short

Here is a screenshot of how to get to the dormitory from the bus station. below the text.

And do not forget your new home's address: 3200 Gyöngyös, Bene út 69. Have a safe trip and we are looking forward to meeting you!
